Excerpt from Canadian Pacific Resolutions: Mr. Blake s Reply to Sir Charles Tupper s Explanation; Thorough Sifting of a Great Scandal; Astounding Discrepancies in Government Estimates; Convincing Argument for Rejection of Terms The whole country sees it, the whole country knows it. At this moment they are laying down a mile and a-half of railway every day, and should no unexpected accident or misfortune happen they intend and believe that they will have the whole railway constructed from Red River to the foot of the Rocky Mountains before the snows of 1882 fall. Well, they did not quite do that. They did not quite carry out the scheme which the hon. Gentleman was sanguine enough to hope they would carry out, namely, complete the railway to the foot of the Rocky Mountains by the end of 1882.
