Volumes would be unequal to detail the loss and unnecessary sufferings which it creates to the human race. It is said to be a stimulus to individual exertion; and such a stimulant is required under the irrational system which has necessarily emanated from the laws of man; but, under the new arrangements which will arise in a system based on the laws of God, a far more powerful stimulus will perpetually exist; which, instead of stimulating to action for individual gain and isolated advantages, will call forth the daily exercise of all the higher faculties of humanity, for the godlike purpose of benefiting all, to the utmost healthy extent of those powers. Law 23. As soon as the members of these Townships shall have been educated from infancy in a knowledge of the laws of God, trained to act in obedience to them, and surrounded...
