By MR R M Atkins

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Chris Powell is an assassin and travels the world killing people to order. Now although most people know that murder is a heinous crime and something that the average person would have nothing to do with. However, there are those who have chosen to make killing into an art form which can also prove very lucrative for the few who can remain undetected by the authorities. Chris Powell is one of those people and has been successfully assassinating people all over the world. The added bonus being that he is now become very rich but also friendless. However, when the tables get turned, for people like him there is nowhere to run to and no-one he can ask for shelter. When his world begins to fall apart for no apparent reason, Chris has to decide whether it is best to try and stay under the radar until the heat is off, or make a bee line for whatever and whoever is gunning for him. Either way many people will die before it is all over!.
