Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . C est une croyance universelle, et pour ainsi dire une tradition native du genre humain, que l homme, a l aide de certaines formules et de certaines pratiques, empruntees tantot a la religion, tantot a la science, peut changer les lois eternelles de la nature, soumettre a sa volonte les etres invisibles, s elever au-dessus de sa propre faiblesse, et acquerir la connaissance absolue et la puissance sans limites. Ces dons superieurs auxquels il aspire, il les demande indistinctement aux elements, aux nombres, aux astres, aux songes, au principe eternel du bien comme au genie du mal, aux anges, a Satan. Egare par son orgueil, il cree toute une science en dehors de l observation positive; et, pour regner en maitre absolu sur la nature, il outrage a la fois la religion, la raison et les lois. Cette science, c est la magie, qui se divise, suivant les temps et les lieux, en une infinite de branches: cabale, divination, necromancie, geomancie, philosophie occulte, philosophie hermetique, astrologie, etc., science empoisonnee dans sa source, qui se resume, au moyen age, dans la sorcellerie, et qui, toujours maudite, toujours combattue par les lois de l Eglise et de la societe, reparaît toujours impuissante et convaincue.
