Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After a devastating junior year, Melodie Chapman Oshiro-Morning changed so much she s now a pariah at school. Everyone thinks she is a slut, but she just needs to see how much in control she can be, because when she wasn t, Stephan turned her into his puppet. She also misses Linda, her ex best-friend, whom she trusted more than anyone else in the world, and chose the worst moment to make the worst confession. Mel s just going through the motions until graduation. Sleeping inside herself, her only hope of waking up is to join the army after high school and become the soldier she s always dreamed to be. Dylan Mackenzie s life hasn t been easier either. His mother just got sentenced to mandatory rehab, so now Dylan and his brother have to move and live with their father, who stayed out of their lives for the past seven years. Dylan has pretty much raised himself and Simon, never able to count on either of his parents, but now he has to relinquish power to a man he can t really respect. Once a renowned doctor, their father lost everything to drugs--including his license. Now he s a janitor at a private school, at least earning a scholarship for his sons. All Dylan wants is to focus on becoming the best doctor he can, as fast as possible, so he can take Simon--and himself--out from under their parents influence. He doesn t have time for drama, for dates, or for girls. But then Melodie walks into his life, and he may not have the self control to resist her. Is Dylan just what Melodie needs...
