

Perform!: The Illustrated Thoughts - Pictures That Unleash Your Imagination to Redefine Your Performance (Paperback)

By Toh Tiong Yau

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Perform! The illustrated thoughts is a collection of illustrations that depicts the ideas of performance. However these illustrations are not just picture representation of the ideas. Rather, there are different ideas and deeper meaning that can be drawn when you look at these pictures from multiple angles and let your imagination works freely. By doing so, you can re-consider your understanding towards high performance and take decisions to achieve even greater heights. The illustrations are inspired by the many discussions that occur in my successful performance management workshops that are delivered for many organizations from different industries across the Asia region since 2005. For the first 12 months that I discussed the ideas and methods of Perform! The illustrated thoughts in the workshops through the pictures illustrated in this book, more than 900 managers and executives have attended. Since 2005, more than 15000 persons have received the training. Many self discoveries about performance management were made from these illustrations when they discuss together on their meaning. Today, there is a continuous growing interest among those that I have spoken with to learn...
