There are two parables that people have trouble in understanding. This being the case they are often ignored or treated as of no effect. It is a great pity for these parables both start with the words The kingdom of heaven is like this and if God the Father is speaking these words to us through His servant Jesus and we choose to ignore them then one day it is quite possible we might regret our inaction. For Moses Himself spoke to us regarding the coming of Jesus. He said that God would raise up a prophet from amongst His people. He would speak through this prophet and He would require it of those who would not listen. Deuteronomy 18: 18-19. So that would infer that the words spoken by Jesus would be of the highest import. Jesus spoke to us using parables. He had very good reason for doing so. It was to ensure that only the right people would understand for specific people were being predestined for particular purposes. This book discusses this point with regard to which people are chosen and for what purpose. The first parable people choose to ignore is the ten virgins (five wise and five foolish). The five foolish have no oil and because of this they are identified by God as fools. In the Bible we learn that oil is a word that represents the Holy Spirit. But we are told by some that if we become a Christian then we already have this oil (Holy Spirit). We have no need to ask. There is only one problem I have with that understanding. If we already have the Holy Spirit...
