Angel, a professor at the University of Texas, receives the chance to observe an archaeological dig near the borders of England and Scotland. It is during this dig that Angel meets Llewellyn the sorcerer in her dreams. She also meets and eventually falls in love with the knight she comes to know as Lord Philip D Arcy. Little did she know that not only the famed dragon bowl shrine she finds in the ruins and her dreams would wind up changing her life forever. She finds herself swept back in time and into the arms of William Scarlett. When Angel meets Philip face to face, she loses her heart and soul completely, finding herself faced with the decision of never returning to her own place and time. Choosing instead to remain with Philip, together with Magda and Llewellyn, she finds a way to make her wishes come true and to keep the man she loves.
