

The Dying Dance (Paperback)

By Ricardo M Fleshman

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How do we reconcile the beauty in death? The Dying Dance is the story of retired New Orleans Police Detective turned Private Investigator Moses Andre Byone, self proclaimed skeptic who uncovers an underworld of voodoo, dark magic and betrayal in the shadows of the human heart as he searches to understand the death of a wealthy white lawyer from Pointe Coupee Parish, Louisiana. On his journey to solve the case Mose discovers a mysterious silver box that may hold the secrets to the darker human behaviors of greed, lust and power. He must find a way to not only protect himself, but also his beautiful young Creole ward, Lisette St. Germain, lest they meet with their own gruesome end. Filled with a wonderful cast of complex and unforgettable characters set against the alluring, grimy but mysterious backdrop of 1970 s New Orleans, the story is sure to thrill and entertain as Mose searches to discover the truth of The Dying Dance.
