 England s angel. I. As, in the glimmering autumn glade When no rude wind is blowing, The moon above the pinewood peers While yet the west is glowing: So - when the hues of passion fade Our mortal pride o erthrowing, There rises through the deepening shade Beyond the hush of hopes decayed Another world in white arrayed; And dim upon our dreaming ears A voice - thy voice, celestial maid, - Falls, like a river flowing: Singing to those that sow in tears The harvest of their sowing. II. It shall be measured saith the lips Of Justice, even as ye mete - Mightier is she than many ships, Older than flag or fleet. This pdf is definitely not easy to get started on studying but quite entertaining to read through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
