

Keepers of the Flame: Contemporary Urban Superintendents (Paperback)

By Theodore J. Kowalski

SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 1995. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A wealth of qualitative data concerning urban districts and their school superintendents in the United States is contained in this book. Theodore J Kowalski examines the lives of 17 urban school superintendents focusing on their problems and aspirations. Of particular significance is the discussion of how factors such as community environment, organizational change and culture, and the person in the job combine to influence decision-making and administrative behaviour.
