Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered at the Anniversary Meeting of the Zoological Club of the Linnean Society: Held at the Society s House, in Soho-Square, November 29, 1827 Gentlemen, In compliance with the example set by your late excellent Chairman, I feel it incumbent on me before I quit this seat, briefly to address you on the principal transactions of the Society, and the progress which Zoology has made in this country during the last twelve months. But first I must pay the debt of gratitude which I owe to the members of the Zoological Club, individually and collectively, for the honour of having been elected your Chairman for the year just past, - an honour due solely to your kindness, not to my deserts; and I fear that I have executed the duties of the situation very imperfectly, for I began the fascinating pursuit of zoological science too late in life to expect to make great proficiency in it. I feel that the Chairman of this Society should combine, like my immediate predecessor, long experience in the various branches of that interminable science, with extensive reading, deep research, and great critical acumen. But though I cannot boast such qualifications, I will yield to no man in point of ardent attachment to Zoology, and zeal for its success. Circumstances compelled me to abandon a darling pursuit, to which I had for many years devoted myself, for another, then almost new to me.
