It has been referred to as a national crisis even one of global proportions. Simply stated, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender-identified young adults are killing themselves. Their sense of isolation in a world of such vast resources is, in itself, a tragedy. How is it their sense of the world has become so small Why have they not been able to find the rooms of the world in which lie hope I, too, struggled as a gay youth. I lived in two worlds, constantly in fear my secret would be uncovered, my strangeness revealed, my legitimacy and success as a young adult challenged, my accomplishments marred, and my confidence shaken. I felt like a fake. I wondered about my ability to live in such a world. In later years, it is the term Ally that came to life for me. It occurred in small ways. Allies, for me, were those friends and family members who supported me, accepted and loved me, who, alongside me, celebrated my life journey. They loved me, laughed and cried with me, gave me...
