MORNING, NOON AND NIGHT JOURNEYS: HOW MY CHILDHOOD JOURNEY BEGAN

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a true-life story of a little girl who has been through some difficulties throughout her entire life. It is full of ups and downs and memories of what happened to her since the age of fourteen months until she was seventeen. During her life she has grown to become a gracious woman of this world and able to tell her loving life journey s to the world and her loving family and friends. The author s life story will certainly have an impact on many young people, along with young and middle-aged mothers who are maturing their young children and training them to make their lives better. Mothers who are helping to secure their children to become better people in today s society with positive family values so they may learn to love their fellow beings and respect everyone that surrounds them. The author would also like to emphasize to all the readers to keep telling their young daughters, sons, family, and friends that they love them so their young adults will grow up with a sense of security knowing that their parents have shown love and kindness to them. The author has experienced great difficulties, including the misfortune of an unloving motherly relationship. She greatly stresses to all young mothers and fathers to stay close to their young ones, to give them a sense of pride, to understand their feelings, and to always show empathy toward them. They are not to resent their young sons and daughters of this world. The author is also deeply scarred from all her ups and downs and her memories of being a young girl. Growing up has affected her,...
