Not illustrated. 1921 Excerpt: .on the Pacific coast that all railroads and highways can reach without climbing high mountains. Thursday 1925 The world is invited to Portland in 1925. Friday 1925 There will be no exposition unless the people of Portland vote for it. Readers may analyze for themselves as to whether this kind of matter, set forth as a school exercise in the official school bulletin and signed by Publicity Committee for the Exposition, is or is not campaign material in behalf of the measure to be voted upon at the election of Saturday, Nov. 19. Many shout for the 1925 Fair, but few are willing to pay. Those who shout the loudest seem most willing to force taxpayers to pay. It s cheaper to make taxpayers put up the money than it is to subscribe as heavily as would be necessary were the fair to be financed by public subscription. Slason Thompson figures that a y re duction in railroad wages is essential to a 20 reduction in freight rates. AUTOS AT 1925 FAIR By L. G. Mon.roe Secretary, Ohio Society of Oregon To the Editor: --The Oregon Voter as a compendium of useful information covering every phase of the public welfare is invaluable to those who keep abreast of the times. No one who has not actually engaged in the work can realize the great amount of labor involved and painstaking care required in the compilation of comparative data which fills its columns in the performance of...
