Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from From Egyptian Rubbish-Heaps: Five Popular Lectures on the New Testament, With a Sermon, Delivered at Northfield, Massachusetts, in August, 1914 On July 31, 1914, the ill-fated Lusitania landed at New York after what proved her last peace voyage. A week later two of her passengers proceeded to the Conference at Northfield, where some two thousand Christian people were gathered in sight of the grave of D. L. Moody. It was very hard for us all, doubly hard for Britons, to detach our thoughts even partially from the horrors that were already beginning - horrors which will long make it impossible to name even the best of Germans without a sharp stab of pain. But we were studying the only Book that can ever bring peace and comfort to men in their direst need, and there is no fear that those who know will think we were fiddling while Rome burned. There is, however, a very obvious apology due for the publication of this little book. Every scholar will see at once its scrappiness and imperfection,...
