Reviews

This book is fantastic. This is certainly for all those who stätte there had not been a really worth reading. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mrs. Isabella Craig Knox (1831-1903) was a Victorian social reformer, women's rights activist, journalist, poetess and novelist. In 1853, she secured a position on the staff of The Scotsman, writing literary reviews and articles on social questions. Largely self-educated in literature, Isabella was an admired poet in her day, first attracting fame as the winner of the Robert Burns Centenary Competition in 1858. Outside of her writing for the periodicals, she published three volumes of poetry: Poems by Isabella (1856), Duchess Agnes (1864) and Songs of Consolation (1874). Her educational books, The Little Folks History of England (1872), Yes or No? -Tales on the Parables (1872) and Easy History for Upper Standards (1885) were popular during her life.
