By Gerrie Ferris Finger

Crystal Skull Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It s 1921. Cleo Snow travels with her cousin, Neill Connolly, to Sago Island, Ga. to lessen the sadness of her fiance s death in The Great War (later called World War I). He d been missing, presumed killed in France, and his body recently returned home. America s victory celebration is in full swing. The Flapper Era has begun. Cleo is poised between her Victorian raising and post-war liberal ideas. Women got the vote in 1920. They work - Cleo s a nurse. Hemlines are rising. Jargon is spicier. Songs are racier. The fox trot is the cat s meow. Everyone smokes coffin nails. The great experiment, Prohibition, has ushered in an era of fascinating gangsters and illegal speakeasies. Drinking and dancing go together like bathtub gin and painted dolls. On Sago Island Cleo meets fly-boy hero Graham Henry, the dazzling son of a steel magnate. They fall in love dancing to Whispering, the rage song of the year. Complicating their love-at-first-sight is Shafer and Josie Drake. Shafer is Graham s cousin. He lost his...

Great electronic book and useful one. It can be writter in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
