Xulon Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 118 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. The bank robbery takes everyone by surprise, but in the hoopla one young teen named Trouble is asking all the right questions. Firstly, why would the bandit target such a small bank in a small town when there are others in the area that hold a lot more money? Trouble is in good company as deputy head of the Sheriff's staff—off the record of course. He's still a school kid, but his smarts and mischievous nature do come in handy. Even though he gets to go along on a lot of cases, the stakes in this one are getting higher as their crime investigation leads to more questions than answers. Just when things could not get any stranger, the national government sends in a Treasury Agent talking about a rare coin heist. . . Can Trouble keep his mind off his ladylove and really help out before time runs out? This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
