Keni Arts Int l, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.We live in two worlds; physical and spiritual. We experience the physical world through sight, sound, touch, taste and feel. The world of the spirit is one of love vs hate, good vs evil, faith vs fear, along with a host of other polarizing terms that describe its existence. We find ourselves living on one or the other side of the tracks in the physical world through any one or combination of factors; economic, social, political, religious, racial; and again the list goes on. We choose on which side of the tracks we ll live in the spiritual world by our words. Living Loom Threads of Life Woven into a Spiritual Tapestry is a book of prose and poetry. The diversity of themes in Living Loom are as though spools of colorful threads were set in a loom and woven into a tapestry of spiritual life that seeks to connect us to God and to one another. The words are about life, even in the threat of death. Living Loom is a collection of words written on the tablet of Keni s experiences and beliefs. With these words, you will be challenged to consider your life in a transformative fashion. Here are some challenges that inspired him to pen Living Loom. Keni was inspired to write Haitian Train after seeing news coverage of a mother determined to find her daughter in the 2010 earthquake in Haiti. The story is told from the daughter s point of view; a view that was born under the debris of a collapsed building The impetus to write Pedophile Priests came after Keni heard Miguel talk about the horrors of..
