

Wendell Berry and the Given Life (Hardback)

By Ragan Sutterfield

Franciscan Media, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. We drive to work on the stored energy of ten thousand years of sunlight. Our daily bread seems to generate miraculously from store shelves. And our communities can be connected with a billion ones and zeros over fiber optic cables. For us, the idea of being a creature can seem passe. Yet in this lonely world of mastery, in a time so dominated by human desire and design that it has been dubbed the anthropocene, the human age, many of us feel that we are missing some essential truth about who we are. The glimpses of this truth come when we lose cell reception on a long hike in the forest and our eyes are lifted to the simple marvel of trees. We feel this truth when we take up a shovel and sense the satisfying heave of dirt as we plant a modest garden. We hear this truth when we tune out the traffic and listen to the song sparrow s melody, eavesdropping on a beauty that serves no human economy. In all this we hear a whisper of the truth that we are creatures--and we long...
