By Corey Edwards

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.I can honestly say that though I haven't had the harshest of lives I have had to endure my lot of woes. From poverty and domestic violence in Jamaica in the tender years of my youth, to the culture clash that I experienced coming to Canada to live with my father, having to deal with social exclusion and bullying in school and living in a home in which I felt misunderstood and unwelcome which eventually pushed me to seek affirmation in the company of questionable individuals. From juvenile delinquency to youth protection services and from there on to an adult life where I would aspire to achieve but would eventually know incarceration, treachery, violence and ultimately depression and insanity the list of hardships which I have known is extensive. Coupled with this short autobiography are a few poems and stories from my hand which give an idea as to the path on which I have walked. This is my story. These are my words.
