This list might be extended to contain the names of many devout men through many centuries, but coming nearer our own era, we find John Wesley, the great founder of Methodism, declaring his belief in a regular gradation of creation from the animalcule to the archangel, and going even farther than Darwin in announcing the theory that each class in the series advances, and will forever advance, men taking the rank of angels, and brutes the rank of men, and eternal progress and felicity be thus the lot of all saved beings. In our own day, such men as Sir Charles Lyell, the most, eminent of living geologists; Dr. James McCosh, ex-President of Princeton University; Dr. William Harper, President of the Chicago University; Canon Farrar; the Duke of Argyll;...
