

Cafe Stories

By Jerry Guarino

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Modern Day O. Henry Cafe Stories is an anthology of 26 critically acclaimed stories by Jerry Guarino, previously published in magazines in the United States, Canada, Australia and Great Britain in 2011. Like mysteries, these stories have twists and turns, unexpected consequences and surprise endings, much in the style of the great William Sydney Porter (aka O. Henry). Instead of 19th century New York, the stories take place in contemporary New York, Boston, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The collection includes love stories, humorous accounts and even a few science fiction tales. Like O. Henry, Mr. Guarino's style appeals to a wide audience, men and women of all ages. Editors, publishers and authors around the world have high praise for his writing. His style is simple and consistently powerful, his storytelling a triumph of art over artifice. Ben Price (Zouch Magazine and Miscellany) His writing is consistently fresh and inventive. His stories grab from the beginning, then hurl the reader into surprising and powerful endings. Definitely a must-read. Earl Wynn (Thunderune Publishing) Each story is well...
