INHUMANUM: A THRILLER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Law of Retaliation Book one: Two bright, extraordinary people on different continents cross paths in their quests to remedy injustice in Ernst s debut thriller . An invigorating, analytical look at vigilantism that neither condemns nor condones it. -Kirkus Reviews Inhumanum is a genre in itself The prose is thick, intense and urgent. The style runs the gamut from the grotesque via the absurd and back . -Magnus Stanke, author of Falling in Death and Love Fans of John Irving, Kurt Vonnegut and James Ellroy will enjoy Bradley Ernst. Bonn Maddox is ambivalent toward the massive ill-gotten fortune he inherited, but he does prize a water-stained document that hangs in his father s study. It s generations old . a black market treasure. Inspiration turns to obsession, The butcher considers his calling a societal reckoning: a deep moral debt owed for his family s predatory greed. The maimed vigilante enlists a pair of eccentric Germans to grow his operation. Discreet, reptile-like savants, they are financial gurus but have their own secrets. When Henna Maxwell, a toxicologist with a rare passion for venom, seeks refuge, Bonn may have risked his freedom. The death count soars. New York City s top homicide team has profiled an inhumanly strong and opportunistic loner who s always a step ahead. Has the hunter graduated to Brownsville? The detectives-an ex-boxer and his pregnant partner-have unknowingly assumed terrible risks. They couldn t guess how personal the killer s hunt has become. Now, more than just thugs are in trouble . those who consider themselves untouchables are next.
