Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This collection of 9 short stories explores the human side of everyday people. These people are extraordinary not for what happens to them, but for who they are. They face their daily struggles with fear and dread, but a resolve to keep pushing forward. From the life of a depressed house wife in Pork Chops and Applesauce to the annoyed Ghost Writer trying to inject life into Death's autobiography in Death on a Stick these are ordinary people faced with the extraordinary trials each of us face every day. Pork Chops and Applesauce is a slice of life look at a typical family dinner. Bigfoot in my Backyard presents every parent's worst nightmare as a mother tries to adjust to a new life in the Pacific Northwest. Make Right What She Made Wrong explores a woman coping with the guilt of killing a baby lizard in her shower on a typical weekday morning. Death on a Stick follows a ghost writer asked to write Death's memoirs for him. Ralph Asks His Wife to Come Home from Holiday I don't know what to say about this one. it is just kinda weird yet compelling. Like a wreck you just can't look away from. Lenin's Head follows a teenager who finds Russian Leader Vladimir Lenin's head in a jar for sale at a local garage sale. Five Eastern, Six--Thirty Central (TV Time) looks at a post apocalyptic world where everyone is too busy watching TV to even notice that the world ended. A Valentine Story: To Honey Power With Love follows a college co-ed struggling to find herself at Brigham Young University when her ecclesiastical leaders...
