Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Based on the Biblical conflict between Elijah, Ahab, and Jezebel, these are readings with a punch. These short, spiritual shots are designed to help you grow in faith and pursue revival and reformation. For all Christians, but written with a masculine edge. It s the 9th Century BC. The future of a people is uncertain. The king inherits the unstable throne of an apostate nation. Will he listen to the whispers of his royal witch and lead them further under judgment s dark clouds? Or, will he hear the words of the rugged prophet from Gilead and lead his backslidden people in repentance, revival, and reformation? Honestly, it has been a long time since I read such a firecracker of a book. -Rev Dr Jules Gomes, Faculty member for the Oxford Centre for Religion Public Life Joshua Jones writes with the same spirit as some of the great prophetic voices of the last century: David Wilkerson, Leonard Ravenhill, Keith Green etc. Yet the subjects he speaks into are timely for the Church of this century. -Evangelist Andrew Murray, This book is essential reading for anyone who is serious about putting on some spiritual muscle, isn t afraid of confronting our culture s sacred cows and who wants to walk worthy of the high call in Christ Jesus. Chew and savour slowly. -Dominic Muir, Author of God Hunger Founder of David s Tent and I personally find the book irresistibly enlightening. I have no doubt others will find the same. Buy it in quantity and give them away! -Dr Alan C. Clifford, Pastor Norwich Reformed Church I highly recommend Elijah Men as a powerful book to keep us sharp and shake the...
