

The Education of Joe Willy

By Wanda M. Argersinger

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 156 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. The Education of Joe-Willy tells the compelling tale of two strangers brought together by chance and the ever present connectivity of the internet. Joe Williams is an introverted, hard-working young man yearning to better himself and break free of his small town past. This leads him to enroll in online collegiate classes and quit his job driving a log truck. Cindy Clarke is Joes online advisor. Her vivacious personality and genuine desire to help other people help them-selves spells a recipe for disaster when Joe is assigned to Cindys student load. As Joes infatuation with his advisor transforms into obsession, Cindy Clarke remains only dimly aware of Joe as a person and possibly provides the spark that leads them both to the impelling, unavoidable climax. A true collaboration between two successful authors, Wanda Argersinger (Y Mees A B C Book of Emotions, Bare Elements, and the soon to be released Kin Were Not Related To) and Clay Mercer (Low Country Boil, Name Your Poison), The Education of Joe-Willy emphatically reminds us that tension and suspense still exist in...
