Reviews

Complete guideline for publication fans. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

At 3.40, 290 (N.W.). 1 1 The last day s notes are given in full, to show the character and method of the work, and the frequency of the observations which were set down in this manner from day to day, and almost up to the moment when the diarist left his boat to return to it a corpse in the arms of his followers. On the inside of the cover of the diary are several rough sketches of swords and spears, and geological or geographical diagrams. Among the latter is the following, which was probably intended as memoranda for a map of his route: --VI. HOW THE LAST EXPEDITION ENDED. Letter from Governor Treacher--Mr. Resident Pryer s Report--Opening of the Inquest--The evidence--Adjourned for the arrival of the last expeditionary boats--Verdict of the jury. Sandakan, March 19th, 1883. Sii, --It is with the greatest possible regret that I enclose copy of a letter from Mr. Resident Pryer, in which he reports the sad intelligence oE the death from the accidental discharge of his own gun of Mr. F. Hatton on the 1st instant, of which I only heard on my arrival here on the 16th instant. The melancholy details are carefully described in Mr. Pryer s letter; and the evidence given at the coroner s...
