THE GRACE OF PRAYER GIVEN TO ALL AND THIS GRACES ORDINARY MODE OF OPERATION

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 136 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Taking, then, for granted that prayer is necessary for the attainment of eternal life, we should consequently, also, take for granted that everyone has sufficient aid from God to enable him actually to pray, without need of any further special grace; and that by prayer he may obtain all other graces necessary to enable him to persevere in keeping the Commandments, and so gain eternal life; so that no one who is lost can ever excuse himself by saying that it was through want of the aid necessary for his salvation. For as God, in the natural order, has ordained that man should be born naked, and in want of several things necessary for life, but then has given him hands and intelligence to clothe himself and provide for his other needs; so, in the supernatural order, man is born unable to obtain salvation by his own strength; but God in His goodness grants to every one the grace of prayer, by which he is able to obtain all other graces which he needs in order to keep the Commandments and to be saved. But before I explain this point, I must prove two preliminary propositions. First, that God wills all men to be saved; and therefore that Jesus Christ has died for all. Secondly, that God, on His part, gives to all men the graces necessary for salvation; whereby every one may be saved if he corresponds to them. Chapter I 5 God Wishes All Men to be Saved and Therefore Christ Died to Save All Men Introduction 5 I. God Wishes All Men to be Saved 6 Decision of the Church 6 The Celebrated Text of St Paul...
