Send 25 cents for a bottle (any color) and a tube of paste. is the title of a charming Etching by S. A. Schoff, after the oil painting of the same name by Charles Sprague Pearce. Mr. Pearce is one of that distinguished group of American Artists who make Paris their headquarters, and are received with honor in the Salon, His works, chiefly figure subjects of women, have won very considerable reputation for their excellence of handling and their pleasing sentiment. The painting referred to above is no exception to this rule, and represents a girl of the type seen in Latin countries, seated in a darkened room and playing dreamily on a guitar. Mr. Schoff s reproduction has the careful finish that characterizes all his valuable plates. The Etching is 9? by T inches in size.
