Success in a different way Do you want to simply throw ballast overboard? Do you want to finally turn the tables and run full throttle in the right direction? You only have one body and you should be as happy as possible with it! Do you want to be introduced to the subject of letting go with a sense of humor? Julia Jovis describes in a heart-refreshing way, how an everyday problem can give immense food for thought. Here she takes you along on her journey and gives valuable input for success. To be able to laugh at yourself and to have a good sense of humor, too, have made a lot of things easier for and influenced her life positively. Scroll up and click buy to get your copy and make the next step on your road to success now! About the author Julia Jovis is a real optimist and sees all the positive aspects, which this brings along. This was not always so. Very early on, she was pressed into certain thought processes, from which she has meanwhile freed herself. She has discovered that it can go well with ease, and this is what she passes on in her books.
