By George Quayle Cannon

Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Juvenile Instructor, Vol. 49: February, 1914 Let us notice this boy a little more closely. Mark his sturdy little limbs, and the robust body which holds the large head so proudly erect! He is but eight years old, but already he is adding materially to the financial support of his widowed mother and his two sisters. Day after day he is doing his part in the big quarry. He has been trained to work, and already the supple muscles and the well-knit frame give evidence of the strong man that is to be. Only eight years old, but mark him well! For already those blue eyes are beginning to reflect some little of the glory of the dreams which pass and re-pass in the mind. But a little sand-boy now, but soon this same little sand-boy is to become one of the presidents of the greatest organization for young men in all the world. That voice, so shrill and wavering now, is soon to sway the judgment of countless thousands by its mature eloquence. That humble,...
