Richer Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Little Cloud is a beautifully written and wonderfully illustrated. The book provides an educational reading experience for both English and Spanish speaking children. In an adventurous and fun-filled fashion, the story Little Cloud meets Bruiser the Cloud, Mr. Mountain and others to teach the readers about the importance of rain water in the Sonoran Desert and the role that clouds play in keeping things green and the residents happy. With a simple 180 degree flip, the child can move from one version of the story to the other. This presents a unique and fun learning experience in multiple dimensions. The book is written for young boys and girls from age 5 through 9. It features fun adventures and are geographically grounded in the Sonoran Desert of North American. This visually magnificent area spans large parts of the Southwestern United States in Arizona and California, and of Northwestern Mexico in Sonora, Baja California and Baja California Sur. The vibrant colored pencil illustrations distinctively bring to life each exciting scene. This unique and colorful children s book is designed to allow young children to use their imagination and enjoy the places that reading can take them. The book includes a Spy Me pages as well as coloring pages to engage both the child and the parent in fun-filled learning.
