Spiritual Heritage Publishing, Australia, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Laila Savolainen (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Joshua finds himself in a dangerous situation at school as he impulsively runs onto the footpath to wave goodbye to a friend. Before he can regain the safety of the schoolyard, Joshua is stopped by a policeman who tells him his mum is in hospital, after having an accident. He asks Joshua to go with him to visit his mum. Joshua and Stranger Danger is a wonderfully fresh and mature approach to keeping our children safe. In the first of the series, the author Joan Derrick imbues Joshua with a soul buddy , or intuitive voice, which warns him of impending danger. What is special about Joan s book is that she brings another dimension to the stranger danger message. By encouraging young people to tap into their feelings, trust their intuition and believe their inner voice, Joan empowers children to think for themselves and identify danger early. Joshua and Stranger Danger represents the net generation of children s books and is a special gift to parents, whose busy lives - and fears, hopes and aspirations for their children - make Joan s offering an essential tool.
