Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Fourth Reader It affords us pleasure to present to the Catholic Schools the last and highest of the new series of Readers. The great aim in preparing the Fourth Book has been to give pupils an introduction to a goodly array of the best modern English writers. We trust that these selections will induce our young people to taste more deeply of many of these wells of English undefiled. In the teaching, the chief points are the understanding and the appreciation of what is read. The latter, while doubtless the more important, is the more difficult to secure with most pupils. Abundant supplementary reading of the right kind is probably the greatest help. In addition to this, the teacher's sympathetic interpretation, through oral reading of other literature, is of great importance. In a word, the reader and the teacher will secure the best results if they succeed in repressing pernicious or merely trashy literature, and in awakening and developing a love of good reading. Chiefly because it detracts from the interest of the story, the longer lessons have not been divided into parts; but each teacher will best know how to arrange for lessons of a length suitable for his pupils. It is not expected that the order of the lessons here given will be strictly followed. It is not possible to arrange an order that would be the best in all circumstances. The expectation is that much of the poetry will be memorized after the literature has been properly taught. The copyright law has, unfortunately, prevented the appearance of selections from several great masters of English, - notably Tennyson. For the Entrance Examination...
