This enquiry will be limited to the powers Of the Senate in respect of Money Bills - Bills appropriating any part Of the revenue or imposing a tax. The House Of Lords has at present six hundred and Odd members and all of these except about seventy owe their position to birth. The Crown has the prerogative to create an unlimited number of new Peerages. This is commonly known as the Swamping power and has Often been described as the safety valve Of the British Constitution. From recent legislation it is quite clear that the House of Commons supported by the Crown can impose any terms on the House Of Lords. Till then that House had constitutionally co-ordinate powers with the House Of Commons in Money Bills as in all Bills and had never formally abandoned them except as to originating money Bills. Todd, Vol. 1, p. 813, says, - Lord Derby in 1861 clearly showed that the Lords had never formally abandoned its rights to amend Money Bills and that in the opinion Of eminent constitutional authorities they would be warranted in such an act Should it be necessary to vindicate their freedom Of deliberation and to prevent the enacting of a measure which they regarded as Objectionable.
