

Entanglement

By Maya Panika

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 290 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.9in. There's a serial killer on the loose and Angel Copperwheat knows his name, but the murderer is long dead and using Angel to power his quest to become a God. The police think Angel is the murderer and maybe he is Angel Copperwheat lives on the bubble-thin surface of what we call reality, surrounded by ghosts and the fractured moments of potential futures, living in more than one world. Angel has spent his life studying quantum physics, the magic of shamans, religions and myths and the threads that bind them, seeking the science of death and the afterlife, believing that nothing is inexplicable, merely unexplained, and always in hope of finding the answer to his biggest question, why me. Since he was a child, newly returned from the dead, Angel used his abilities selfishly, meddling with time and space in search of elusive happiness and the love he feels he doesn't deserve. The Reverend Forster, Vicar of St Swithuns, knows who Angel is and what he is. Forster has tapped the cracks Angel opened in reality and used it to steal...
