Are you a fan of football and sweet romance? Enjoy a generous helping of both in Love at the 20-Yard Line. Haven Haggarty is woefully inept when it comes to men and matters of the heart. Successful in her job as an image consultant with an up-and-coming company, Haven wishes she could enjoy as much triumph in her dating efforts. Falling for the local arena team's handsome wide receiver, Haven realizes she needs to tackle her fears or miss the opportunity to experience once-in-a-lifetime love. Brody Jackson lives and breathes football. As a wide receiver for a popular arena team, he's determined to make it back to the NFL. Cocky and confident, he doesn't have the time or energy to be bothered with a serious relationship. Brody is blindsided by the girl who captures his attention during the first game of the season and breaks through his defenses. He has to decide if he'll let go of his dreams or fumble his chance to win Haven's heart. Scroll up and order your copy today! Excerpt: Turning his gaze to...
