"The education for all 2000 assessment was planned to combine quantitative and qualitative information for a complete picture of progress in EFA over the Jomtein decade. To complement the EFA country reports, fourteen global thematic studies were commissioned; their executive summaries are appearing in this book. These thematic studies reflect some of the key policy areas confronting basic educators in the first decade of the twenty-first century, no less than in the last decade of the twentieth century. These highly authoritative thematic studies-co-ordination of the research and writing of the studies was shared by various partners including DFID, SIDA, UNESCO, UNICEF, WHO, World Bank and the NGO Consultative Forum-provide rich insights and 135 pp.
