

Reflections of a Tomboy Grandma (Paperback)

By Diane Perkins Castro

Id Publishing House, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What is the most fundamental fact of human existence? The 60 essays in this book cover a wide variety of topics-including joy, faith, unity, love, wisdom, suffering, death, grief, peace, and gratitude-but the overarching theme is that every human being is created by God in His image and has great worth. The implications of this truth in every facet of life are absolutely staggering. These essays begin to explore what this fact means in terms of how we view ourselves, how we perceive God, and how we treat others. Some of the pieces tell the unique stories of different individuals. Some talk about the character of this God who created us in His image-what He is like and what He is doing in the world. Others deal with how we should interact with other people, given that every person we meet has a profound God-given value. Maybe you want no part of Christianity because of the behavior of Christians. Don't throw it out; read this book to see how Christians ought to treat people. Maybe you are a believer who has given...
