

Don't be Afraid

By Daniela Sacerdoti

Black and White Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Don't be Afraid, Daniela Sacerdoti, In Glen Avich, Isabel is at her lowest point. Always a sensitive child, she has grown up in the shadow of her absent mother - who drowned herself when Isabel was two - and her hard, silent father. And now, as her anxiety gets worse, she's no longer able to leave the house and she's losing the will to live, in spite of the deep, unwavering love of her musician husband Angus. At a loss, Angus looks for a home companion for Isabel as he's often away on tour. Enter warm, wise Clara who seems to gain Isabel's trust immediately, as if they've known each other all their lives. Slowly and with Clara's help, Isabel begins the long hard walk out of the forest of her mind, as Clara helps her rediscover her love for Angus and her passion for art. But there's a mystery surrounding Clara - an almost magical quality that leaves Angus baffled but allows Isabel to slowly trust again. Then, after an accident at home, Isabel stumbles, while someone who works with Angus is ready to exploit Angus' vulnerability in spite...
