Mr. Canning IS Open for consultations 1n regard to work contemplated and we are always glad to render whatever assistance we can to the solution of your landscape problem. Mr. Canning 5 training in this work comprises seven years in the office of the largest landscape architect In the country together with intensive study and training under his father, the late Edward J. Canning, whose name is too well known to horticulturists to need introduction. We will gladly submit for reference the names of clients for whom we have done landscape work. It will be found that in the long run it is cheaper to obtain our service throughout theg work paying only the one profit, than to pay three profits, one to the landscape architect, one to the nurseryman and one to the contractor. Our service includes all three. There are, of course, problems of such complexity that we are unable to cope with them. We will not hesitate to tell you if we are unable to help you, and recommend to you a firm of reputable standing capable of solving the difficulty.
