Self-Reform Forces: Understanding the Organization Development Concept of Exdysivity (Paperback)

By Yanyong Thammatucharee

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Exdysivity - a revolutionary guide for business to help them self-reform in the new economy. More and more, what are considered real business practices are becoming obsolete. Yet companies and employees still shackled to them. Exdysivity lays out how a business and its employees can be transformed into highly adaptive member of the world. Not only for today, but to ensure long-term survival. Do Key Performance Indicators adversely affect team performance? Do archaic back office functions keep a business from thriving? What role does corporate social responsibility play in the success of a business? Exdysivity answers these questions. It is a high-quality work/life management basis for survival. It starts in the mind and is an organic process. It is a philosophy of renewal. In business, it is systematic reforming of a corporation to enhance growth and long-term sustainability. Exdysivity looks at the speed of change and how to stop taking irrelevant actions. It focuses on the elimination of waste. Exdysive people and businesses stand out from the group. They are equipped to keep moving. They are alert, sensitive, quick, flexible, ethical. Exdysivity is not...
