By Matthew Engelbert

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 124 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 6.7in. x 0.3in. Murdered Journalist Young Law School Student Former U. S. Attorney General Mayor of New York City President of the United States UNCIVIL PROCEDURE Life was pretty good for second-year law school student, TODD CHASE. The other students at The Keith School of Law were not particularly fond of Todd. The guys hated him for dating the most attractive woman in the school, EMILY NEWHALL, and the women hated him because he did not choose one of them. Further, he had somehow managed to get into a weekly tennis match with Professor KURTIS OSLO. Actually, Oslo had sought out Todd for the game as Todd had played varsity tennis for the University of Michigan as an undergraduate. Not only was he Oslo's doubles partner, he was also his assistant. The latter really fueled the ire of the other students who already had grown resentful of Todd's unusual relationships. There was not one student at Keith who would not give their first-born for the chance to work with Oslo, the former United States Attorney General. Oslo hired Todd as a 1L (breaking with his usual standard of hiring a third year...
