Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An honest and critical look at math education from the inside, from the author of Letters from John Dewey/Letters from Huck Finn For anyone concerned with what Common Core is bringing about in the name of 21st century math education, STEM education, and 21st century skills, this book is a must-read. I am not an outright proponent of the philosophy that If you want something done right, you have to live in the past , but when it comes to how to teach math there are worse philosophies to embrace, Barry Garelick explains as he continues from where he left off in his last book (Letters from John Dewey/Letters from Huck Finn). He describes his experiences as a long-term substitute teacher at a high school and middle school. He teaches math as he best knows how while schools throughout California make the transition to the Common Core standards. It is the 50th anniversary of key historical events including the JFK assassination and the Beatles arrival in the U.S. It is also the 50th anniversary of his first algebra course, the technical and personal memories of which he uses to guide him through the 21st century educational belief system that is infused with Common Core and which surrounds him. Adds Garelick: Teaching Math in the 21st Century will never be required reading in any school of education in the United States. While this might be a great reason to read the book, it is also a shame because there is a serious lack of an honest discussion and debate on math education issues that really needs to happen in education schools and within the...
