JOURNAL OF A BOY SCOUT: FIRST YEAR OF SCOUTING (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Daniel is shy, quiet, and often bullied at school. His mom and dad think he needs to do more things that other boys do-like play sports-but he s not good in any of the activities he s tried. When his parents sign him up for Boy Scouts, he s just as excited as he was about soccer and swimming-which is not at all. But they promise he can drop out if he doesn t like scouting, so Daniel reluctantly agrees to try it. Once he joins a Boy Scout troop led by Scoutmaster Mr. Webb, Daniel is immersed in all sorts of activities he wasn t expecting-encountering wild black bears, camping out in below-freezing weather, and even eating oatmeal for the first time. He also grows as a person as he takes part in community-service projects and helps to deliver food to hungry families. Perhaps best of all, he finds some wonderful new friends among his fellow Scouts. Daniel recounts his experiences through entertaining, often amusing journal entries. By reflecting on his many adventures, hardships, and surprises, he realizes that his first year of scouting has transformed him, and he s ready for more!.
