An Owl s Whisper, a novel In the shadow of evil, truth is the riskiest choice. Open An Owl s Whisper and enter Eva s world-one of truth and lies, refuge and peril, loyalty and betrayal, innocence.guilt.redemption. Eva Messiaen is a convent school girl in 1940s Belgium when Hitler s invasion and occupation eclipses continental Europe in a black shadow. Her controlling guardian, Uncle Henri, calls childhood a weakness and orders that she subvert her desire for a normal life to something nobler. To the girls around her, Eva is a beacon of light, but they don t know her dark secret. Eva can accept the loss of her childhood to the savagery of war but an atrocity exposes the hollowness of Henri s vision and changes everything. It shatters her fragile world and spurs her to strike back at the Nazis. She has the moxie to set their web of evil ablaze, but does she have the wits to escape its flames unscorched? An Owl s Whisper, built on themes of guilt and redemption, tells Eva s powerful story.
