Excerpt from Reply to the Epistle of the Yearly Meeting of Orthodox Friends, Held at Fourth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, Fourth Month, 1897: Addressed to All Meetings Bearing the Name of Friends and the Members Composing Them Orthodox, severed your connection and correspondence with all other bodies bearing the name of Friends seventy years ago, then assuming, as you have ever since maintained, that all others are wrong and you only right. You have since then so dwindled as to numbers that it is estimated you will at the present rate of decline become extinct as a body in forty years. But your decadence and approaching extinction - serious a matter as that is for you to contemplate - is less important than the cause of it, - viz. , your exceeding narrowness and illiberality, your unwillingness or inability to see yourselves as others see you, as shown in your stub born adherence to antiquated dogmas, forms, and modes of thought, and in such customs as disowning your members for marrying out of meeting, for having musical instruments in their houses, etc. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
