

Mineral Springs Road 1940s: Memory Is My Name

By M B Spears

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The United States, once upon a time not long ago, was filled with family farms. You could walk along a country road and pass family after family. They d maybe be working in the fields or around in the yard. They might be lounging on the porch drinking sweet cold tea. No big operations on houseless land, no amalgamations, no paved roads, no total efficiency, just home. They d wave, and you d wave. Growing fills a child s day all the way up. Years later we might -- or might not -- remember what was happening in the big world. Like the Great Depression, which (for some) was gone. And World War II, fought by Americans (mostly farm boys) far from home. In the 1940s, a child was growing up hungry to learn. She already knew that mules, herd dogs, and turkey gobblers don t like children but nanny goats and little dogs do, that bare feet are best, and that money is way less important than freedom and good grownups. Soon as she could read and...
